BOSE®

Bose Corporation

Bose Corporation, an American privately held corporation, was founded in 1964 by then Massachusetts Institute of Technology professor, Dr. Amar G. Bose. Since then, Bose innovations have spanned decades and industries, creating and transforming categories in audio and beyond.

Bose Corporation established itself by introducing the 901® Direct/Reflecting® speaker system in 1968. With this introduction, Bose achieved international acclaim by setting a new industry standard for lifelike sound reproduction. The list of major technologies emerging from Bose continues to grow. Bose is best known for its home audio systems and speakers, noise cancelling headphones, professional audio systems and automobile sound systems. The company has also conducted research into suspension technologies for cars and heavy-duty trucks.

Bose was honoured with the Beryllium Lifetime Achievement award, Association of Loudspeaker Manufacturing & Acoustics International, 2014. Today, Bose has operations in the United States, Europe, Canada, Australia, Asia and South America, with 10,500+ employees world-wide.

“It has continued to be an excellent journey with ETP. They not just took care of our retail pain points but also gave us a lot of value additions like reporting, analytics and more, so we can have accurate and timely data for analysis and take decisions basis that. We are a part of the retail industry and we aim to deliver the highest customer experience. ETP has been a partner with us in delivering that excellent experience to our customers.” says the Finance Manager, Bose Corporation, India and ME.

He further elaborates, “Our store staff is really happy these days. Today, a customer who walks in to the store and decides on a product can make the payment and take the product with the invoice in less than 5 minutes. That has been the fantastic experience thanks to ETP. We were so impressed with the solution they provided for Bose India, it was a natural progression for us to extend it to our Middle-East operations and it has been a success there as well. They have helped us provide excellent customer service and are definitely the preferred partners in our growth story.”
