GUESS in The Philippines

GUESS in the Philippines

GUESS is an American upscale clothing brand and retailer. Brothers Paul and Maurice Marciano opened the first Guess store in Beverly Hills, Los Angeles in 1981.

The company was one of the first companies to create designer jeans. While the first jeans were for women, in 1983 a men's line debuted. In 1984, GUESS introduced its new line of watches known as "GUESS", "GUESS Steel", and the "GUESS Collection". The watch line has been joined by a number of other accessory sidelines such as jewelry and perfumes. In 1984, they also introduced a line of baby's clothes, called "Baby GUESS". The line is now incorporated with clothing for toddlers and kids called "GUESS Kids".

The GUESS brand was brought to the Philippines by two entrepreneurs - Mr. Michel Stamati, a resident French national, and Mr. Victor Siasat, being of Filipino-Chinese origin. In June 1992, they formed two corporations, the Diversion Industries, Inc. (DII) and California Clothing, Inc. (CCI). Mr. Stamati and Mr. Siasat were elected Chairman of the Board of DII and CCI, respectively. Ms. Linda Estrella was appointed President of CCI in 1994.

The first GUESS store in the Philippines was opened at The Landmark in November 1992. By the end of 1994, GUESS was listed at number 694 in the 'Top 1000 Philippine Corporations' and in 1999, at number 537. There were 43 GUESS stores across the Philippines by the end of 1995. The expansion also branched into Baby GUESS and GUESS Kids with tremendous success. At the turn of the new millennium, the 106th GUESS store was opened.

GUESS in the Philippines is managed by a group of young and dynamic individuals forming an eclectic team whose creativity is one of the greatest assets of the company. CCI continues to expand its product lines and distribution network. The company will further increase the productivity and competencies of its resources, to meet the challenges of the growing retail market.
